Spring Sessions 2018,

First off, A big thank you for your interest and participation with Vive La Art! Kids Club and Things Crafty, Now for the serious bit...

This is the legal parent or guardian: rules agreement, waiver release, and contact form. Both students and guardians need to read, sign, and initial for unsupervised minors to attend.

Rules for the studio:

Minors under age 13 or under, must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Sharp or hot, objects and tools are used from time to time on various crafting projects, so Common sense, awareness of actions, and surroundings is required at all times during usury of said objects.

Students left in the studio unattended must initial the waiver spot, to signify: no lawsuit will be pursued in case of accidental injury to themselves or other guests; their Guardians initials are needed as well for this purpose.

Occasionally pictures will be taken at these events. We use the pictures for advertising and social media shares on Facebook, Instagram, and other social sites. If you refuse to let you child's image be used in possible future advertising or online media share please initial here _____. If so I will gladly honor your request.

Guest are expected to be on good behavior, to listen to and follow instructions. As this is a fun creative environment; No bullying or down talk is allowed. Positive experience is the goal here. In the event a guest consistently shows foul behavior. They will be asked to leave and not attend future events.

At the end time of the scheduled event, minor aged students must be picked up promptly by their pre advised guardian, to insure the safety of the children I don't allow minors to walk in or out without guardian. If any change in pick up person or timeframe occurs then please contact the instructor before pick-up. I can be reached by phone, text, or Facebook easily
